ABOUT ME

Sandra Martinez Regan is a painter and art photographer from California. She was born and raised in San Francisco and lives in the Bay Area and Mendocino County. She finds great joy in her photography and is inspired by the works of Frida, Vivian Maier, Jean-Michel Basquiat, and her father, the late Santa Fe muralist, Ross Martinez. Sandra can be found with her Nikon D5200 camera or paintbrush in hand and music in her ears in the community being inspired by nature, the movement and textures of hands, the moon, the beauty of everyday things and everyday people, and her traveling adventures both in NorCal and Europe.
